Welcome

Last Best Brewing & Distilling opened its doors in May 2015. The name Last Best draws from Calgary's eclectic history. At the end of the 1800s, the Canadian government launched a campaign called 'The Last Best West'; it's purpose was to populate the western prairies and grow agriculture in Canada. The administration believed that this area was the Last Best chance in the modern world for homesteaders to lay roots and shape their futures.

The accomplishments resulting from the Last Best initiative have paved the way for the budding craft beer and distilling industries here in Alberta. Last Best Brewing & Distilling honours this historical spirit through its name and unwavering commitment to making delicious well-crafted beer, spirits and Alberta-inspired cuisine.

Last Best can cater to any style of event from corporate functions, birthday parties, weddings and everything in between. We have a variety of private and semi-private spaces to host your next event. Our space can accommodate groups from 30 - 300 people.

We look forward to hosting your next event!
